1) One leave vacancy of 28 days duration has occurred and it is filled up locally. The action taken is in order.

2 There is only one official who has been granted extension of service. The extension period will expire on 20.12.1932. This will be noted in the Special Register maintained in the Office.

3 In this connection, it is noted that vacancies of this Office were not being reported in this office so far for being filled up under the recruitment rules.

4 With reference to the Budget it is seen that the cost on account of the establishment of this Office is debited to the General Funds (non-voted). Orders are solicited as to whether the recruitment rules should be made applicable to this as well as the allied offices.
